

EVERYDAY HEROES is designed for the San Diego Police Department, offering home buyer education and assistance to qualified officers serving our city.

I thank the San Diego Association of REALTORS® for launching the Ambassadors Foundation and creating the Everyday Heroes program which seeks to provide homeownership opportunities for San Diego police officers.

– Jerry Sanders, Mayor of San Diego

The San Diego Police Officer's Association fully supports the San Diego Association of REALTORS® Ambassadors Foundation Everyday Heroes program. By establishing Everyday Heroes, the Ambassadors Foundation is demonstrating its appreciation and commitment to San Diego's citizens and police officers. This program will help San Diego police officers realize the "American Dream" of homeownership.

SDAR Ambassadors Foundation and REALTORS® realize the importance of everyday heroes who keep neighborhoods safe and help make San Diego “America’s Finest City.”

Homeownership is often a challenge for the individuals who protect us on a daily basis, thus preventing them from living near the communities they protect and serve.

The goal of SDAR Ambassadors Foundation is to provide officers who have been on the San Diego Police Department force from 2-5 years and are first-time homebuyers with the opportunity to make the American dream of homeownership a reality.

Through EVERYDAY HEROES, SDAR Ambassadors Foundation will provide interest rate buy-downs for qualified officers, saving these individuals hundreds of dollars on their monthly mortgage payments and allowing them to own their own homes in San Diego.
